

curtain call

“We do on stage things that are supposed to happen off. Which is a kind of integrity, if you look on every exit as being an entrance somewhere else.”

Tom Stoppard, Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Dead

Things are moving along with Katikati Theatre although we are still very frustrated by the lack of a permanent (or even semi-permanent!) home. No apologies if this seems like the same old record!

Our annual Dinner Theatre productions at Forta Leza were well received and we stood up well with numbers despite a number of alternative ‘attractions’ being on at the same time. We intend being ahead of the game for 2014 and have already pencilled in the last week of June and the first week of July.

Now – on to more immediate matters. We are staging an amalgam of prose and poetry reading, humour, song and drama, all bundled up as ‘Come into The Parlour’ which will be staged as part of the Katikati Mural Festival in early October. We will be working in conjunction with the Heritage Museum and auditions will be held on Sunday 18th August in the Museum schoolroom from 2pm to 4pm.

If you have any aspirations in these fields, do please come along. You will be assured of a warm welcome and, as an added bonus, many of the items will not need to be memorised! Auditions are completely open to both males and females – any age

The two performances are scheduled for Thursday 3rd and Saturday 5th October in the Museum

Any questions? Please call Di Logan (549 1652) or Julie Thomas (549 0985)

Next in line will be a reprise of the hugely successful production of the Dickens classic ‘A Christmas Carol’ which will be performed on the brand new stage at The Settlers Hall in Omokoroa.

The final dates have yet to be confirmed but it is likely to be the first weekend in December. If you missed this when we presented last year at St Peters in Katikati, then now is your chance to fall under the spell of the old miser, Ebenezer Scrooge, as he encounters the ghosts who are determined to show him the errors of his ways. Full details in your next Curtain Call

We all look forward to seeing you at the auditions.

Dave Woodhouse
Chairman (548 1093)

Our theatre has a “Facebook” page, please visit it, comment and ‘like’ it, so we can spread the word. The more members and supporters we have the stronger we become.

Dates to Remember...

Auditions
Come into the Parlour
18th August 2-4pm
Museum Classroom

Performances
3rd and 5th October